To Whom It May Concern:

The Research Information Division at Church headquarters is seeking to fill current openings for social science research analysts. We are sending you the enclosed announcement to inform you and solicit your help. Please forward this announcement to any candidates whom you think may be qualified for the attached positions. Also, if applicable, please post it for those who may be interested in and qualified for these openings. As identified in the announcement, we are seeking bright, talented, energetic people with background in the social sciences. We work in a dynamic, team-oriented, multi-disciplinary environment. As a reminder, all applicants must be members of the Church in good standing.

In addition, over the next several years we expect to be filling other similar positions. If you are familiar with individuals who might become qualified over the next two to five years, please forward their contact information to me. We are setting up a database to track future potential candidates.

Candidates should apply on-line at www.lds.jobs (research analyst job numbers 0900564 and 0900565). We will begin reviewing applications immediately; for full consideration applicants must apply by January 8, 2010. The start date for these positions can range from early- to mid-2010. If you have any questions about these positions, please feel free to contact me at charneyla@ldschurch.org or call 801-240-3397. Thank you for your help.
