To Whom It May Concern:

The Research Information Division at Church headquarters is seeking to fill a current opening for a social science product research manager. We are sending you the enclosed announcement to inform you and solicit your help. Please forward this announcement to any candidates whom you think may be qualified for the attached position. Also, if applicable, please post it for those who may be interested in and qualified for this opening. As identified in the announcement, we are seeking bright, talented, energetic people with background in the social sciences, evaluation research or media research. We work in a dynamic, team-oriented, multi-disciplinary environment. As a reminder, all applicants must be members of the Church in good standing.

In addition, over the next several years we expect to be filling other research positions as members of our staff retire. If you are familiar with individuals who might become qualified over the next two to five years, please forward their contact information to me. We are setting up a database to track future potential candidates.

Candidates should apply online at www.lds.jobs (click on the "Advanced Search" link and enter the job reference ID number 158136 in the "Job Opening ID" field after signing in). We will begin reviewing applications immediately; for full consideration applicants must apply by July 16, 2016. If you have any questions about this position, please feel free to contact me at waltongr@ldschurch.org or call 801-240-5475. Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Gary R. Walton, PhD
Senior Research Manager
Search Committee Chair
